Karen: Did you get a new laptop?
me: we almost did, but they wouldn't let Dad use Sandy's credit card, so she's going to have to pick it up Karen: No problem, no hurry. What time is your phone meeting tomorrow? I wanted to bring you by some brisket.
me: It's in the morning at 10:45 me: actually, looks like we'll pick up the computer tonight, so you can get your laptop back when you come over
